

| The Story Of God's Dealings With Our Nation
Volume 2: The Stuarts To Elizabeth II

This book is a remarkable achievement. Christina Eastwood is to be congratulated on this brilliant survey of English and Welsh history from the early 17th to the beginning of the 21st century. Clearly and simply written, the author has succeeded in referring to every major event, movement and personality in that period. Inevitably, in a book covering four centuries, many details have had to be omitted. But this is compensated for by the inclusion, at the end of each chapter, of a list of things to do, resources for further reading, and worksheets aimed at consolidating the learning experience and extending the child's knowledge and understanding.

Although primarily intended for children who are being home educated, this book will be immensely useful to many adults whose knowledge of the history of this era is limited or lacking. Written from a Protestant, Evangelical and Reformed perspective, this account will help fill the gaps left, and correct the errors propagated, by secular history books and state school teaching.

Dr. Stanley Jebb, Truro. (B.A., B.D., P.G.C.E., Th.D.)

Dr. Jebb served 42 years as a Baptist minister and has lectured in theological and educational colleges. He also founded a Christian school. He is currently engaged in itinerant preaching and writing.